All electors of the Non-partisan party of the City of Astoria, are requested to assemble at the Court House in the City of Astoria, on November 25th, 1899, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for election, at the coming general election of the City of Astoria.

By order of the NON-PARTISAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

MR. DEMENT DECLINES.

Unable to Accept the Honor Tendered Him by the City Convention.

The republicans will have to find some candidate other than Mr. Dement for the head of the ticket.

Mr. Dement called at the Astorian office last night to authorize the notice of his declination of the mayoralty nomination. He states that he fully appreciates the compliment and thanks the members of the convention for it, but he feels that to accept would only mean sacrificing his own affairs without benefit to the city.

Mr. Dement would have been an invincible candidate and a splendid mayor, and this notice of his inability to accept the nomination will cause general and sincere regret.

The duty of selecting a candidate will fall upon the central committee which meets Friday night.

pursuits are much more profitable to the average person than any of the professions. A studious young man or woman can prepare for a business career in about one-fourth the time required to educate for a profession, and at about one-fourth the cost. The success of hundreds of our graduates is every-day proof of the value of a practical education. Examine into the merits of our school. Learn how and what we teach. Students of "Armstrong's Combined Theory and Practice of Bookkeeping" learn to keep books exactly as they are kept in business. New way to teach; makes bookkeeping easy. Investigate. Call, or write.
